Index: Volume III. January-December, 1922

Abbreviations (Ed.) Editorials; (N) News Items

Abstract of Introductory Address, Kansas Conference, Rt. Rev. John Ward, 411.
Accidents and Sequelae in Abdominal Operations, J. Hunter Peak, 40.
Address of Chairman, Catholic Hospital Association, George A. Metzger, 339.
Address of Welcome, Illinois Conference, Clifford W. Collins, 364.
Address of Welcome, Catholic Hospital Association, 298.
Address of Welcome, Southern States' Conference, Rev. T. A. Cronin, 268.
Address on Behalf of the Hospitals of North Louisiana, J. C. Willis, 269.
Administrative Organization of the Hospital, Sr. M. Regina, 309, 345.
Advantages and Disadvantages of the Eight-Hour Day, Sr. M. de Paul, 366.
ALBERTA, Sr. M.—The Relationship Between the Hospital and the Nurse, 198.
American College of Surgeons and Hospital Standardization, (Ed.), 482.
Analysis of Hospital Service, G. S. Foster, 144.
AQUINAS, Sr. M.—Nursing School Library, 196; Social Welfare Work in Connection with Catholic Hospitals, 197.
Aura of the Directress of Nurses, The, J. A. Hagamann, 242.
Autopsies, Charles A. Gordon, 399.
Autopsy Work as a Branch of Hospital Laboratory Service, H. A. Felder, 234.
Avoid Misunderstanding, (Ed.), 279.
BACH, JAMES A.—Intra-Ocular Manifestations in the Various Brain Conditions Associated with Brain Pressure and the Modus Operandi by Which These Manifestations Are Brought About, 456.
Bacteriology and Applied Immunology, Robert A. Kilduffe, 314, 355, 444, 478.
BAILEY, FRED.—The Relation of the Hospital to the Patient, 233.
BARR, H. A.—Unusual Case of Appendicitus Simulating Perforated Gastric or Duodenal Ulcer, 491.
BARROW, S. C.—The X-Ray Department of a Private Hospital, 325.
BARTLETT, C. L.—Some of the Hospital's Problems, 70.
BAUCH, S.—Two Cases of Malaria Simulating Typhoid Fever, 78.
BENIGNA, Sr. M.—Hospital Staff and Case Records, 67.
BENITI, Sr. M.—Hospital Administration, 387.
BERENICE, Sr. M.—Dietetics, 107.
BERNEDETTE, Sr. M.—The Doctor, the Patient, the Nurse, 193.
BERGUM, O. T.—Stomatology in the Hospital, 162.
Big Things, (Ed.), 278.
Bi-Lingual Problem, A, (Ed.), 33.
BOLAND, REV. JOHN P.—Report of the Director of Diocesan Supervisors, Catholic Hospital Association, 424.
BOTTOMLEY, JOHN T.—Research, Education and Library, 389.
BOURKE, REV. M. P.—Is the Term "Staff" a Modern Day Misnomer? 87.
BOYCE, S. W.—Post-Operative Pneumonia—Its Treatment in the Congestive Stage, 273.
Brief History of Nursing. Elizabeth McGuire, 330.
BROGAN, JAMES M.—Ethical Principles for the Character of a Nurse, 463.
BUBENZER, CLARA E.—Public Health and Social Service Nursing, 324.
Cancer of the Large Bowel, Including the Rectum, J. W. Riley, 79.
Care and Treatment of the Psychopathic Patient, The, Sr. M. Laurentine, 453.
Case History Taking and Record Keeping, J. T. Robinson, 326.
Case of Lymphatic Leukemia of the Acute Variety, A, J. J. Tobinski, 43.
Case Records, O. C. Morrison, 19.
Catholic Hospital Association of U. S. and Can., The, B. F. McGrath, 213.
Catholic Hospitals Listed as Standard in 1921, 35, 85.
CEPHAS, Sr. M.—The Scientific Organization of the Hospital, 306, 344.
Characters in Medical and Surgical Ethics, James J. Walsh, 474.
Choosing a Nurse Seven Hundred Years Ago, James J. Walsh, 375.
Christmas Radio-Therapy Gift, A, (Ed.), 483.
Christmas Spirit, The, (Ed.), 484.
Christmas Visit to Chatham Hotel Dieu, A, James P. Waddleton, 127.
Clinical Laboratories in Hospitals, Philip Hillkowitz, 146.
Clinical Records in the Hospital, John B. Hartwell, 150.
COLLINS, CLIFFORD W.—Address of Welcome, Illinois Conference, 364.
Columbus Hospital School of Nursing Reorganized, 121.
Come Follow Me, Rev. J. Gatton, 126.
Commencement Address of Rev. E. J. Ahern, 498.
Commencement Exercises at St. Joseph's Hospital, Bellingham, Wash., (N), 500.
CONFIRMA, Sr. M.—The Laboratory in Our Hospitals, 69.
CONNELL, F. GREGORY.—Surgical, Diagnostic, and Pre-Operative Procedure Before Patient Enters Modern Operating Room, 100.
Conservation of Health in Religious Communities, 261.
Constiution, By-Laws and Rules of the Staff of St. Andrew's Hospital, Murphysboro, Ill., 350.
Convention, The, (Ed.), 240.
Convention Reflections, (Ed.), 319.
Convention Sermon, Catholic Hospital Association, 297.
COOPER, REV. JOHN M.—Extra-Hospital Activities, 386.
Cooperation Through Coordination, (Ed.), 160.
CORONA, Sr. M.—The Purpose and Value of State Organization, 194.
COSGROVE, ELIZABETH.—Medical Social Service, 404, 451.
Country Operations, Sadie Daley, 82.
CRONIN, T. A.—Address of Welcome, Southern States' Conference, 268.
Curriculum of the Nurses' Training School, Mercy Hospital, Davenport, Ia., (N), 503.
DALEY, SADIE.—Country Operations, 82.
Demonstration of the Birth Process, John F. Moran, 343.
DE COURCY, JOSEPH L.—The Surgical Treatment of Goitre, 373.
DE PAUL, Sr. M.—Advantages and Disadvantages of Eight-Hour Day, 366.
DE PAZZI, Sr. M.—President's Address, Illinois Conference, 365.
Dietetics, Sr. M. Berenice, 107.
Dietetics—An Interesting Suggestion, (Ed), 32.
Dietetics in Relation to the Hospital Problems, Agnes O'Dea, 397.
Dietitian and the Hospital, The, F. H. Walke, 274.
DILLON, E. T.—Facts, Principles and Scope of the California, Arizona and Nevada Hospital Association, 485.
Discussion on the Nursing Problem, Sr. Marie, 108.
Doctor, Patient, Nurse, The, Sr. M. Bernedette, 193.
Doctors' Hospital, (Ed.), 76.
Doers, The, (Ed.), 202.
Duties and Difficulties of the Head Nurse, The, Sr. M. Lidwina, 371.
Duties of the Graduate Nurse to Her Alumnae, Sr. M. Visitation, 459.
Economic Organization of a General Hospital, The, Sr. M. Innocent, 308.
Economy in Our Hospitals, Sr. Mary Malachi, 488.
ELLIS, F. G.—The Work of an Up-To-Date Hospital Laboratory, 270.
EPLER, DR. CRUM.—The X-Ray Laboratory in Hospitals, 152.
ESSICK, R. B.—St. Andrew's Hospital, Murphyboro, Ill., 347.
Ethical Principles for the Character of a Nurse, James M. Brogan, 463.
EVANGELISTA, Sr.—Technical Training of Sisters for Hospital Work, 488.

536796

Experience With the Standardization Program of the American College of Surgeons From the Surgeon's Standpoint, A. C. Scott, 45.
Extra-Hospital Activities, Rev. John M. Cooper, 386.
Facts, Principles, and Scope of the California, Arizona, and Nevada Hospital Association, E. T. Dillon, 485.
Fashion Degrading the Nursing Profession, 208, (Ed.), 278.
FELDER, H. A.—Autopsy Work as a Branch of Hospital Laboratory Service, 234; The Selection of Routine Laboratory Tests, 28.
Field to Cultivate, A, (Ed.), 115.
FLAGG, PALUEL J.—The Patient's Viewpoint, 8, 56, 98, 142, 264; Shall the Charity of the Catholic Medical World Include the Foreign Mission Field? 427.
FLEMING, H. R.—The Hotel-Dieu Hospital—Past and Present, 13.
FOOTE, JOHN.—The Nursing Care of the Child as Shown in Art and Archaeology, 343.
FOSTER, G. S.—Analysis of Hospital Service, 144; Qualifications of a Model Nurse, 413.
Franciscan Spirit, (Ed.), 77.
Fundamentals of Medical Activities, Rev. C. B. Moulinier, 385.
GATTON, REV. J.—Come Follow Me, 126.
GENEVIEVE, Sr. M.—The Modern Operating Room, 194.
GIESE, CHARLES O.—Some Considerations in the Treatment of Tuberculosis, 312.
GILLIS, A. C.—Psychiatry and Neurology, 394.
Glockner Sanitorium, The, Colorado Springs, Colorado, 171.
Golden Jubilee of Sr. Boniface, St. Alexius Hospital, 164.
GONZOGA, Sr. M.—What is the Matter With Our Training Schools? 237.
GORDON, CHARLES A.—Autopsies, 299; The Record of the Operation, 336.
Graduating Address, Rev. Fr .Sigmund, 461.
Great Medieval Hospital, A, James J. Walsh, 1.
Great Surgery in a Catholic Hospital, James J. Walsh, 129.
Great Work of the Catholic Hospitals, Rev. C. B. Moulinier, 269.
Gregor J. Mendel, Edward L. Miloslavich, 455.
HAGAMANN, J. A.—The Aura of the Directress of Nurses, 242.
HARTWELL, JOHN B.—Clinical Records in the Hospital, 150.
Heart of the Hospital, The, 188.
HECKEL, GEORGE B.—Painting the Hospital, 472.
HEFNER, AUGUSTA J.—Psychology of Nursing, 250.
Helping the Hospital, (Ed.), 241.
HENRIETTA, Sr. M.—The Laboratory in Our Hospitals, 157.
HILLER, CARL.—Intensive X-Ray Therapy in Germany, 118.
HILLKOWITZ, PHILIP.—Clinical Laboratories in Hospitals, 146.
Hospital Administration, Sr. M. Beniti, 387.
Hospital and Laboratory as an Aid in Diagnosis and Treatment of Diabetics, E. L. Rohlf, 233.
Hospital and the Resident, With Some Consideration of What the Hospital Should Teach the Resident, The, Robert A. Kilduffe, 18.
Hospital Day, (Ed.), 159.
Hospital Laboratory, The, Sr. M. Jeannette, 104.
Hospital Laboratory, The, Robert A. Kilduffe, 131.
Hospital Laboratory, George Walter, 271.
Hospital Normal School, (Ed.), 449.
Hospital of the Future, The, R. A. Penick, 321.
Hospital Records, Dr. J. O'Keefe, 235.
Hospital Staff and Case Records, Sr. M. Benigna, 67.
Hospital Standardization, Its Inception, Development and Progress in Five Years, Franklin H. Martin, 187.
Hospitals as a Missionary Agency, Floyd Keeler, 428.
Hotel Dieu, Beaumont, Texas, 51.
Hotel Dieu Hospital—Past and Present, Kingston, Ontario, The, H. R. Fleming, 13.
House Good Nurses Build, The, (Ed.), 449.
How Hospital Day Was Observed in Catholic Hospitals, 293.
Ideal Staff Meeting, An, Sr. R., 119.
Ideals of a Nurse, The, (Ed.), 116.
Idle Thoughts—Mostly About Residents, Robert A. Kilduffe, 492.
Importance of Pathological Laboratory in Hospital Work, Edward L. Miloslavich, 245.
Influence of the Individual Nurse Upon the Spirit of the Training School, Mary Mulligan, 499.
INNOCENT, Sr. M.—The Economic Organization of a General Hospital, 308.
Intensive X-ray Therapy in Germany, Carl Hiller, 118.
Interesting Experiment, An, (Ed.), 201.
Intern Problem, The, (Ed.), 450.
Intra-Ocular Manifestations in the Various Brain Conditions Associated With Brain Pressure and the Modus Operandi by Which These Manifestations Are Brought About, James A. Bach, 456.
Introduction to Symposium, Seventh Annual Convention, Catholic Hospital Association, B. F. McGrath, 381.
Introductory Address, Iowa Conference, Catholic Hospital Association, Rev. P. J. Mahan, 192.
Introductory Remarks, Southern States' Conference, Catholic Hospital Association, Rt. Rev. C. Van de Ven, 268.
Iowa Conference Meets, 490.
Iowa Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association, The, 191, 232.
Is the Term "Staff" a Modern Day Misnomer? Rev. M. P. Bourke, 87.
JEANNETTE, Sr. M.—The Hospital Laboratory, 104.
JENNINGS, FRANK D.—Physiotherapy, 396; Staff Meeting, Records and Museum, 406.
JERMAIN, LOUIS F.—A Model Hospital Staff, 92.
KEELER, FLOYD.—Hospitals as a Missionary Agency, 428.
KENNEDY, MAY.—Teaching Ethics to Nurses, 368.
KILDUFFE, ROBERT A.—Bacteriology and Applied Immunology, 314, 355, 444, 478; The Hospital and the Resident With Some Consideration of What the Hospital Should Teach the Resident, 18; The Hospital Laboratory, 131; Idle Thoughts—Mostly About Residents, 492.
KIRWIN, VERY REV. J. M.—A Few of the Underlying Principles of Ethics, 321.
KNOWLTON, GERTRUDE.—Social Work in Hospitals—Its Educational Aspects, 6.
Laboratory in Our Hospitals, The, Sr. M. Confirma, 69.
Laboratory in Our Hospitals, The, Sr. M. Henrietta, 157.
Laboratory Service in Hospitals of Less Than One Hundred Beds, G. F. Strong, 183.
Lafayette Plan of Assigning a Hospital Staff, The, 419.
LAURENTINE, Sr. M.—The Care and Treatment of the Psychopathic Patient, 453.
LEONISSA, Sr. M.—The Training of the Nurse, 68.
Let Us Have Action, (Ed.), 75.
Let Us Help One Another, (Ed.), 279.
LIDWINA, Sr. M.—The Duties and Difficulties of the Head Nurse, 371.
Little Things, (Ed.), 241.
LOEB, HANAU W.—The Therapeutic and Diagnostic Center of the Hospital, 393.
LOURDES, Sr. M.—Nursing, 412.
LUDEN, GEORGINE.—Visualizing Established Scientific Data, Importance of Little Things, 252, 287.
MAHAN, REV. P. J.—Introductory Address, Iowa Conference, 192; Report of the Committee on Hospital Standards, 425.
MALACHI, Sr. M.—Economy in Our Hospitals, 488.
MANLEY, J. R.—Report of the Obstetrical Department of St. Mary's Hospital, Duluth, Minn., for 1921, 334.
MARIE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, SISTER.—The Problem of the Staff, 370.
MARIE, Sr.—Discussion on the Nursing Problem, 108.
MARTIN, FRANKIN H.—Hospital Standardization; Its Inception, Development and Progress in Five Years, 187.
Material for Staff Meetings, (Ed.), 114.
Maternity Hospitals, (Ed.), 318.
McCONNELL, J. F.—Staff Meetings at St. Francis Hospital, 148.
McGRATH, B. F.—The Catholic Hospital Association of the U. S. and Canada, 213; Introduction to Symposium, Seventh Annual Convention, 381; Medical Education, 47.
McGUIRE, ELIZABETH.—Brief History of Nursing, 330.
McNerthney, John B.—Report on Thyroids, St. Joseph's Hospital, Tacoma, Wash., 204.
Medical and Nursing Ethics, (Ed.), 318.
Medical Case, Pneumonia, Drs. Mowery, 119.

Medical Division, Creighton Memorial Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital, Omaha, Neb., 202.
Medical Education, Bernard F. McGrath, 47.
Medical Social Service, Elizabeth Cosgrove, 404, 451.
MILOSLAVICH, EDWARD L.—Gregor J. Mendel, 455; The Importance of Pathological Laboratory in Hospital Work, 245.
Minimum Standard, The, J. L. Pritchard, 258.
Minimum Standard of the Catholic Hospital Association, The, 361.
MINNIGERODE, LUCY.—The Part Played by the Nurse in a Hospital Program, 401.
Misericordia Hospital, Winnipeg, Can., (N), 497.
Model Hospital Staff, A, Louis F. Jermain, 92.
Modern Operating Room, The, Sr. M. Genevieve, 194.
MORAN, JOHN F.—Demonstration of the Birth Process, 343.
MORRISON, O. C.—Case Records, 19.
M. Sr.—The Order Book Versus the Order Sheet, 122.
Mottoes for Hospital Work, 372.
MOULINIER, REV. C. B.—Fundamentals of Medical Activities, 385; Great Work of the Catholic Hospitals, 269; Our Third Volume, 30; Our Two Great Needs, 358; The President's Report, Catholic Hospital Association, 423.
Mountain States' Conference of Catholic Hospitals, 146.
MOWERY, DRS.—A Medical Case, Pneumonia, 119.
MULLIGAN, MARY.—Influence of the Individual Nurse Upon the Spirit of the Training School, 499.
Necessity of a Dietitian, The, Sr. M. Victory, 275.
Neurologic Consultations in Hospital Staffs, (Ed.), 241.
New Surgical Pavilion, St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn., 431.
NIELSON, C. H.—The Therapeutic and Diagnostic Center of the Hospital, 393.
NIFER, CORA V.—The Universal Shortage of Nurses and What is Possible for the Training Schools to do to Help Relieve the Situation, 155.
Night Meeting of Doctors and Nurses, Catholic Hospital Association, 342.
Nurse's Contribution to Human Happiness, The, 377.
Nurses' Home for St. John's, Long Island City, N. Y., The, 90.
Nurses' Hospitals, (Ed.), 158.
Nurses' Training School From the Standpoint of the Pupil, Nell O'Leary, 153.
Nursing, Sr. M. Lourdes, 412.
Nursing Care of the Child as Shown in Art and Archaeology, John Foote, 343.
Nursing Problem in Rome, The, (Ed.), 360.
Nursing School Library, Sr. M. Aquinas, 196.
Oak Park Staff Meeting, 207.
O'DEA, AGNES.—Dietetics in Relation to the Hospital Problem, 397.
ODILO, Sr. M.—The Training of the Nurse, 71.
O'KEEFE, J.—Hospital Records, 235.
O'LEARY, NELL.—The Nurses' Training School From the Standpoint of the Pupil, 153.
Order Book Versus the Order Sheet, Sr. M., 122.
Organization and Community Service of St. Francis Hospital, Wichita, Kans., 133.
Organization and Service of St. Joseph's Hospital, Tacoma, Wash., 94.
Organization of the Hospital as a Whole, 302.
Our Advertisers, (Ed.), 409.
Our Third Volume, Rev. C. B. Moulinier, 30.
Our Two Great Needs, Rev. C. B. Moulinier, 358.
Painting the Hospital, George B. Heckel, 472.
Patient's Viewpoint, The, Paluel J. Flagg, 8, 56, 98, 142, 200, 264.
Patient's Entrance, The, Raymond P. Sullivan, 391.
Part Played by the Nurse in a Hospital Program, The, Lucy, Minnigerode, 401.
PEAK, J. HUNTER.—Accidents and Sequelae in Abdominal Operations, 40.
PENICK, R. A.—The Hospital of the Future, 321.
Pennsylvania State Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association, 451.
Physiotherapy, Frank D. Jennings, 396.
Points of Contact, (Ed.), 409.
Pope Benedict XV, (Ed.), 114.
Pope Pius XI, (Ed.), 158.
Postgraduate Study, (Ed.), 408.
Post-Operative Complications, (Ed.), 159.
Post-Operative Pneumonia—Its Treatment in the Congestive Stage, S. W. Boyce, 273.
POWER, REV. MICHAEL.—Social Service Work in Catholic Hospitals, 489.
PRAXEDES, Sr. M.—The Technical Training of Sisters for Hospital Work, 103.
Present Status of Pathology, 246.
President's Address, Illinois Conference, Sr. M. dePazzi, 365.
President's Report, Catholic Hospital Association, Rev. C. B. Moulinier, 423.
PRITCHARD, J. L.—The Minimum Standard, 258.
Problem of Suffering, The, Very Rev. J. J. Toomey, 191.
Problem of the Staff, The, Sr. Marie Immaculate Conception, 370.
Profession of Nursing, The, 168.
Progress, (Ed.), 408.
Progress of Medical Science, The, Robert B. White, 180.
Proper Hospital Publicity, (Ed.), 482.
Provincialism in Medicine, (Ed.), 74.
Public Health and Social Service Nursing, Clara E. Bubenzer, 324.
Purpose and Value of State Organization, The, Sr. M. Corona, 194.
Psychiatry and Neurology, A. C. Gillis, 394.
Psychology of Nursing, Augusta J. Hefner, 250.
Qualifications of a Model Nurse, G. S. Foster, 413.
RAYMOND, Sr. M.—Record Problems, 487.
Record Committees, (Ed.). 202.
Record of the Operation, The, Charles A. Gordon, 336.
Record Problems, Sr. M. Raymond, 487.
REGINA, Sr. M.—The Administrative Organization of the Hospital, 309, 345.
Relation of the Hospital to the Patient, Fred Bailey, 233.
Relation of the Hospital to the Patient, Benjamin L. Sheldon, 232.
Relation of the Modern Hospital to the Patient, The, Rev. F. D. Sullivan, 323.
Relationship Between the Hospital and the Nurse, The, Sr. M. Alberta, 198.
Report of the Committee on Hospital Standards, Rev. P. J. Mahan, 425.
Report of the Conferences, Catholic Hospital Association, 23, 60, 109.
Report of the Director of Diocesan Supervisors, Rev. J. P. Boland, 424.
Report of the Obstetrical Department of St. Mary's Hospital, Duluth, Minn., for 1921, J. R. Manley, 334.
Report of the Second Meeting of the Kansas Conference, 411.
Report on Thyroids, St. Joseph's Hospital, Tacoma, Wash., John B. McNerthney, 204.
Research, Education and Library, John T. Bottomley, 389.
R. Sr.—An Ideal Staff Meeting, 119.
RILEY, J. W.—Cancer of the Large Bowel, Including the Rectum, 79.
ROBINSON, J. T.—Case History Taking and Record Keeping, 326.
ROHLF, E. L.—The Hospital and Laboratory as an Aid in Diagnosis and Treatment of Diabetics, 233.
RUMLEY, REV. JOHN F. M.—Some of the Benefits and Advantages of State Conferences of the Catholic Hospital Association, 65.
St. Andrew's Hospital, Murphysboro, Ill., R. B. Essick, 347.
St. Francis Sanitarium, Monroe, La., 467.
St. Mary's Hospital Training School, Milwaukee, Wis., 166.
Scientific Organization of the Hospital, Sr. M. Cephas, 306, 344.
SCOTT, A .C.—Experience With the Standardization Program of the American College of Surgeons From The Surgeon's Standpoint, 45.
Second Annual Meeting of the Illinois Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association, 364.
Sectional Conferences—Uniformity in Records, (Ed.), 115.
Selection of Routine Laboratory Tests, The, Herman A. Felder, 28.
Service Bulletin, (Ed.), 361.
Service of the Nurse, The, (Ed.), 450.
Seventh Annual Convention of the Catholic Hospital Association, 297, 339, 381, 423.
Shall the Charity of the Catholic Medical World Include The Foreign Mission Field? Paluel J. Flagg, 427.
Shall We Standardize Our Records? (Ed.), 160.

SHELDON, BENJAMIN L.—The Relation of the Hospital to the Patient, 232.
SIGMUND, REV. FATHER.—Graduating Address, 461.
Social Order and Health, The, (Ed.), 200.
Social Service in a Catholic Hospital, Elizabeth Cosgrove, 451.
Social Service Work in Catholic Hospitals, Rev. Michael Power, 489.
Social Welfare Work in Connection With Catholic Hospitals, Sr. M. Aquinas, 197.
Social Work in Hospitals—Its Educational Aspects, Gertrude Knowlton, 6.
Some Considerations in the Treatment of Tuberculosis, Charles O. Giese, 312.
Some New Year Queries, (Ed.), 74.
Some of the Benefits and Advantages of State Conferences of the Catholic Hospital Association, Rev. John F. M. Rumley, 65.
Some of the Hospital's Problems, C. L. Bartlett, 70.
Something Besides, Louis B. Wilson, 327.
Soul of the Patient, The, George W. Wright, 322.
Southern States' Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association, 268, 321.
Staff Meeting, Records and Museum, Frank D. Jennings, 406.
Staff Meeting, St. Mary's Hospital, Walla Walla, Wash., 118.
Staff Meetings at St. Francis Hospital, J. F. McConnell, 148.
Staff Problems, Sr. Stella, 486.
State Conferences of the Catholic Hospital Association, 64.
STELLA, Sr.—Staff Problems, 486.
Stomatology in the Hospital, O. T. Bergum, 162.
STRONG, G. F.—Laboratory Service in Hospitals of Less Than One Hundred Beds, 183.
SULLIVAN, REV. F. D.—The Relation of the Modern Hospital to the Patient, 323.
SULLIVAN, RAYMOND P.—The Patient's Entrance, 391.
Summary of Laboratory Service at St. Paul's Sanitarium, Dallas, 418.
Surgical, Diagnostic and Pre-Operative Procedure Before Patient Enters Modern Oeprating Room, F. Gregory Connell, 100.
Surgical Technique Employed at United States Public Health Service Hospital No. 35, 205, 248, 284.
Surgical Treatment of Goitre, The, Joseph L. DeCourcy, 373.
Teaching Ethics to Nurses, May Kennedy, 368.
Technical Training of Sisters for Hospital Work, Sr. Evangelista, 488.
Technical Training of Sisters for Hospital Work, Sr. M. Praxedes, 103.
Therapeutic and Diagnostic Center of the Hospital, C. H. Nielson and Hanau W. Loeb, 393.
Thoughts for Sisters, 352.
This Having Your Tonsils Out, (Ed.), 448.
TOBINSKI, J. J.—A Case of Lymphatic Leukemia of the Acute Variety, 43.
TOOMEY, VERY REV. J. J.—The Problem of Suffering, 191.
Training for Hospital Work, (Ed.), 240.
Training of Hospital Social Workers, The, 493.
Training of the Intern and Its Influence on the Future of Medicine, The, Edward F. Ziegelman, 255.
Training of the Nurse, The, Sr. M. Leonissa, 68.
Training of the Nurse, The, Sr. M. Odilo, 71.
Training School for Nurses, Notre Dame Hospital, Manchester, N. H., 36.
Training Schools for Nurses, (Ed.), 34.
Tribute to the Sisters, A, Dr. Wm. J. Mayo, 438.
Tuberculosis Dispensaries and Clinics in the United States, 502.
Two Cases of Malaria Simulating Typhoid Fever, S. Bauch, 78.
Universal Shortage of Nurses and What is Possible for the Training Schools to do to Help Relieve the Situation, The, Cora V. Nifer, 155.
Unnecessary Noise in Hospitals, (Ed.), 483.
Unusual Case of Appendicitis Simulating Perforated Gastric or Duodenal Ulcer, H. A. Barr, 491.
VAN DE VEN, RT. REV. C.—Introductory Remarks, Southern States' Conference, 268.
VICTORY, Sr. M.—The Necessity of a Dietitian, 275.
VISITATION, Sr. M.—Duties of the Graduate Nurse to Her Alumnae, 459.
Visualizing Established Scientific Data—Importance of Little Things, Georgine Luden, 253, 287.
WADDLETON, JAMES P.—A Christmas Visit to Chatham Hotel Dieu, 127.
WALKE, F. H.—The Dietitian and the Hospital, 274.
WALSH, JAMES J.—Characters in Medical and Surgical Ethics, 474; Choosing a Nurse Seven Hundred Years Ago, 375; A Great Medieval Hospital, 1; Great Surger in a Catholic Hospital, 129.
WALTER, GEORGE.—The Hospital Laboratory, 271.
WARD, RT. REV. JOHN.—Abstract of Introductory Address, 411.
Washington Impressions, (Ed.), 361.
We Should All Be Students of History, (Ed.), 33.
Western Canada Conference, 35.
What is the Matter With Our Training Schools? Sr. M. Gonzoga, 237.
WHITE, ROBERT B.—The Progress of Medical Science, 180.
WILLIS, J. C.—Address on Behalf of the Hospitals of North Louisiana, 269.
WILSON, LOUIS B.—Something Besides, 327.
Word About St. Francis Training School, Colorado Springs, Colo., A, 332.
Work Of an Up-To-Date Hospital Laboratory, The, F. G. Ellis, 270.
WRIGHT, GEORGE W.—The Soul of the Patient, 322.
X-ray Department of a Private Hospital, The, Dr. S. C. Barrow, 325.
X-ray Laboratory in Hospitals, The, Dr. Crum Epler, 152.
ZIEGELMAN, EDWARD F.—The Training of the Intern and Its Influence on the Future of Medicine, 255.